Die Jovis, 13. Martii, 1644.

It is this day ordered, by the Lords and Commons in Parliament assembled, that this Directory, and Ordinance concerning it, be forthwith printed and published; wherein Master Henry Robrough and Master Adoniram Byfield, the scribes of the Assembly of Divines, are required to use all possible care and diligence, that it be, from time to time, faithfully and exactly done. And, for preventing of all abuses therein, it is further ordered, that no person or persons whatsoever shall presume to print or reprint the same, in any volume, but only such as shall be appointed and authorised thereunto by the said scribes: and that no person, or persons, shall presume to sell, barter, or any way to spread or convey any book, or copies of the said Directory, printed without the appointment abovesaid, upon pain and forfeiture of the whole impression, if any such be so printed; and of all such books, or copies thereof, as shall be offered to sale, bartering, or be any other ways spread abroad. And all and every person offending in any of the premises, to be liable to such further punishment as the contempt of an Ordinance of Parliament shall deserve.
