A YOUNG MAN'S RELIGION

BY THE SAME AUTHOR

FIRST THINGS FIRST. Addresses to Young Men.
Eighth Thousand. Crown 8vo, cloth, 3s. 6d.

"Every sermon in Mr. Jackson's volume burns with a great earnestness. He is emphatically a man with the best of all messages."—Methodist Times.

"May be cordially commended to all young men for the high yet true ideal of life inculcated, and the clear and manly and arresting manner in which it is unfolded and enforced."—Scottman.

THE TABLE-TALK OF JESUS. And other
Addresses. Fourth Thousand. Crown 8vo, cloth, 3s. 6d.

"These addresses are valuable for the transparency of their style, for the freshness of their thought, and for the pointed and impressive character of their practical appeals. Mr. Jackson is a master in the art of popular address. He keeps steadily in view the needs of everyday life, and they who turn to his volume for instruction and stimulus will find themselves well rewarded."—Glasgow Daily Mail.
