THE BLUE AND GOLD COOK BOOK; RECIPES OF QUALITY

E are gratified to be able to present to our friends and patrons the "Blue and Gold Cook Book" because we believe that it will meet with the appreciation we hope for and can assure you that an extraordinary amount of time and care has been expended in collecting and editing this volume of recipes. We have found in our experience that almost every cook book which has heretofore been published has given too much space to ordinary recipes, within the ken of every experienced housewife.

Our assumption is that the lady who uses a cook book knows the ordinary rudiments of the Art of Cookery—that in turning to the pages of a cook book she does so in the anticipation of finding therein something new—something that will appeal through its very novelty.

With that end in view we have delved deeply into the question and hope that our labors have not been in vain—and that the recipients of this book can truly say they have found therein something new—something worth while.

The mistress of the home who is suddenly confronted with a houseful of company for either luncheon, dinner or supper, may turn to the menus which are provided and feel assured that any one of them is perfect in its way and will earn for the hostess the appreciation of her guests.

You will find simple recipes—and elaborate ones—chafing dish specialties—canapes and salads—all essential factors that make for the successful meal—and the height of accomplishment is attained when you augment these preparations with the zest contained in every bottle of Blue and Gold Lager.

Very truly yours,

OAKLAND BREWING AND MALTING CO.

Cooking

Cooking is the art of preparing food by the aid of heat, for the nourishment of the human body. The principal ways of cooking are boiling, broiling, stewing, roasting, baking, frying, sauteing, braising, fricasseing and steaming.

Boiling: Cooking in boiling water. Boiling point, 212 F.

Broiling: Cooking over a glowing fire. Steaming: Cooking over boiling water.

STEWING: Cooking for a long time in water below the boiling point. Simmering point, 185 F.

ROASTING: Cooking before a glowing fire.

BAKING: Cooking in an oven.

FRYING: Cooking in hot deep fat, deep enough to cover article to be cooked.

Sauteing: Cooking in a small quantity of fat.

Braising: A combination of stewing and baking. Fricasseing: A combination of frying and stewing.

HOUSEHOLD RULES_HOW TO MEASURE.

All measurements should be made LEVEL.

Accurate measurement is essential to insure good cooking.

A half-pint cup is the standard. They can be had with fourths and thirds indicated.

A cupful is a cup filled LEVEL with the top. To measure a cupful, fill lightly with a spoon, taking care not to shake the cup; then level with the knife.

A spoonful is a spoon filled LEVEL with the top. First sift the material into the bowl, dip in the spoon, lift it slightly heaping, and level it by sliding the side of a knife across the top of the spoon. Do not level by pressing it.

Half a spoonful is obtained by dividing through the middle lengthwise.

A speck of anything is what will lie within a space 1/4 inch square.

WHAT COOKS SHOULD KNOW.

Allow four eggs to each quart of milk in making cup custards.

Allow from four to six eggs to each quart of milk in making a custard to be turned from the mold.

Rice will absorb three times its measure of water and a large quantity of milk or stock.

One ounce of butter equals two level tablespoons.

One ounce of flour equals four tablespoons.

One ounce of butter and one-half ounce of flour are used to thicken one cup of liquid in making a sauce.

Allow two level teaspoons of baking powder to each cup of flour when no eggs are used,

One cup of sugar will sweeten one quart of any mixture to be served chilled or frozen.

One teaspoonful of extract will flavor one quart of custard or pudding to be served unfrozen.

One teaspoonful of extract will flavor one quart of mixture to be frozen,

One level teaspoon of salt will season one quart of soup, sauce or vegetables.

The ordinary French dressing (three tablespoons oil, one and one-half tablespoons vinegar, one-fourth level teaspoon salt, one-eighth level teaspoon pepper, and one-quarter teaspoon of sugar) will marinate one pint of salad.

One teaspoon of water or milk should be allowed for each egg in making an omelet.

WEIGHTS AND MEASURES AT A GLANCE.

The Fountain of Good Cookery is Accuracy.

By level measurements are meant a spoon or cup filled full with dry material, then leveled off smooth, to the spoon's edge. Flour is sifted before being lifted into the cup or
