PART I

LAW IS THE DIRECTOR OF FORCE

FORCE, in ever giving birth to new manifestations of her individuality, has been enabled to continue to advance her own cause through example, which in turn has led to an increasing love and devotion on the part of her favorite offspring and chief admirer,—Human Nature.

This blind love on the part of humanity is as the intense interest of the child; it cannot be held within bounds, and having once o'erstepped the mark, calls upon bitter experience to lead the way to a fuller understanding of life.

The very embodiment of force discloses law; in that for force to exist it must conform to laws working throughout the uni-
