GRAHAM
HAMILTON; VOL. I

GRAHAM HAMILTON.

Farewell old Cotta's hills and dales,
Her heathy moors and winding vales ;
The scenes where wretched fancy roves,
Pursuing past, unhappy loves !
Farewell, my friends ! Farewell, my foes !
My peace with these, my love with those —
These bursting tears my heart declare,
Farewell the bonnie banks of Ayr. BURNS.

INTRODUCTION.

THE political convulsions of the Old World, and the great prospects opening in the New, have of late years driven the unfortunate, and allured the adventurous, to quit the former, and to seek in the latter a refuge from calamity and a field for enterprise. In the year —, and in the city of —, two English strangers found
