AUDUBON AND BACHMAN'S QUADRUPEDS.

AUDUBON, JOHN JAMES AND BACHMAN, REV. JNO. The Viviparous Quadrupeds of North America. With one hundred and fifty superb plates, drawn from nature and beautifully colored by hand.

3 vols. Elephant folio, full Russia, gilt, gilt edges. New York 1845-1848 and Text, 3 vols. Imperial 8vo, three-quarter Russia, gilt, top edge gilt.
New York, 1846

The Birds were originally published in 87 parts, supposed to be of five plates each, during 1827-1838; subsequently bound in four volumes, each furnished with a title leaf as in the copy, but with no text. The plates were furnished without text to avoid the necessity of furnishing copies gratis to the public libraries of England, agreeable to the English Law of copyright. Owing to the destruction by fire of the stock and copper plates, and ruinous effects of the war in the Southern States where most copies were sold, the work has become extremely rare. It is by far the most elaborate ornithological work ever published. This copy is as crisp and clear as the day of issue. In volume four, two of the plates have a slight crease in them, which can be easily ironed out, and the binding on the same volume is slightly broken at the top. It is doubtful, however, whether a finer copy could be had. The Quadrupeds is also a magnificent, fine, crisp and clean copy, bound uniformly with the birds. The two works together making the most sumptuous publication ever gotten up on the Birds and Quadrupeds of any country. Both works will be sold as whole, or one lot. They are encased in a handsomely carved Black Walnut Cabinet, with sliding apartments for the larger volumes, and shelf for the descriptive volumes.

- 29 BAILEY, N. An Universal Etymological English Dictionary. Eighth edition.

- 30 BAILLIE, JOANNA. Miscellaneous Plays; and a Series of Plays in which it is attempted to delineate the Stronger Passions of the Mind.
4 vols. 8vo, full calf, gilt, sprinkled edge. London, 1804-1821
Scarce.
