P R E F A C E.

THE following Lectures are part of a Course which I have nearly completed, on the Literature of Rome in the Pre-Augustan Age. Only one of these, however, has been actually delivered, namely, that on the Elementary Age; and it has now been subjected to considerable revision. I have not had time to do the same for the rest. Should leisure and opportunity be allowed me, I shall hope to continue and enlarge the work that I have begun, of which I now offer this specimen to the University.
