TO ALL
WHO SORROW OVER
THE SORROWS OF HUMANITY.

INTRODUCTORY NOTE.

THE thoughts which make this little book are not the outcome of a sudden impulse. They are now presented with a desire to glorify Him Who came to bear our griefs and to carry our sorrows, and in the hope of cheering those who suffer in this present evil world.

If this book shall appear to some who read it only a departure from the current teaching, perhaps also to others it shall seem to suggest an approach to the better understanding of God's Love.

BROOKLYN, 27 January, 1894.
