Act of Incorporation.

CHAP. 281.

AN ACT to incorporate the Custodial Asylum for Feeble-minded Women at Newark, Wayne county, New York, and to provide for the appointment of Trustees and the purchase of buildings and grounds.

PASSED May 14, 1885 ; three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1.—The Asylum established by the State Board of Charities, at Newark, Wayne county, for feeble-minded women, is hereby continued and shall be a body corporate, and shall be known as the State Custodial Asylum for Feeble-minded Women at Newark, New York, and shall be under the management and control of a Board of Trustees to be appointed as hereinafter provided, and shall be under the general supervision of the State Board of Charities.

§ 2.—The Governor, by and with the consent of the Senate, shall appoint nine persons, three of whom shall be females, who shall constitute the Board of Trustees. Three of said Trustees shall be appointed for two years, three for four years and three for six years; all appointments of Trustees thereafter shall be made by the Governor by and with the consent of the Senate, and shall be for six years, except appointments to fill vacancies, which shall be for the unexpired term. Only said Board of Trustees shall have the custody and control of all property, and power to make all rules for the management and control of the effects of said Asylum. Said Board of Trustees shall also have power to appoint one of their number President of said Board, one member of their number Secretary, and one member Treasurer. The Treasurer shall, before he receives any money, give a bond to the people of the State of New York in such sum and with such sureties as a majority of the Board of Trustees shall require.

§ 3.—Said Board of Trustees shall have power to appoint a Superintendent, a Matron, and employ all assistants that may be necessary for the proper management of said asylum.

§ 4.—The sum of fifteen thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, out of any sum or sums heretofore appropriated for the support and maintenance of the inmates of the Custodial Asylum for the services of attendants therein, and for other necessary expenses and the ordinary repairs of said Asylum, until the close of the next fiscal year, may be expended under the direction of the Trustees of the State Asylum for Idiots, for the support and maintenance of such additional inmates of said Asylum for idiots as may by law be committed to its care, in excess of the number of such inmates for whose support and maintenance appropriations have already been made, and the residue of such appropriations so made for the purposes of said Custodial Asylum, and the further sum of fifteen thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, which is hereby appropriated out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, shall be paid over to the Treasurer of said State Custodial Asylum for Feeble-minded Women, to be expended by him under the direction of the Board of Trustees thereof, upon the order of the President, counter-
