LEGENDS OF FLORENCE

SOME PRESS NOTICES

Daily Chronicle.—"Mr. Leland adds to the qualifications of a practical collector and sifter of popular legends and antiquities that of a charming literary style, singularly adapted to his subject-matter. . . . There is, in fact, no page at which the present book may be opened that will not afford new points of interest to the general reader as well as the student of folk-lore."

Westminster Gazette.—"This is a charming collection of legends, obtained for the most part from the folk-lore library in the head of a certain Maddalena, a native of the Romagna Toscana, versed in witchcraft. Mr. Leland re-tells the stories with many interesting remarks by the way, and with much humour."

Scotsman.—"Folk-lorist and general reader alike will pore over this collection with huge delight."

Morning Post.—"In 1886 the author made the acquaintance of a woman of Florence skilled in fortune-telling and mystical cures, who not only exhausted her own stock of stories, but hunted up her acquaintances for more. Mr. Leland has also been 'free' of the 'community of witches,' who are the repositories of Italian folk-lore, for some years."

Bookman.—"His book and its general spirit are fascinating."

Liverpool Review.—"Mr. Leland is always delightful."

The Realm.—"A fascinating melange."

Sunday Times.—"Full of interest."
