INTRODUCTION.

---

"A Cheval! à Cheval! hésitation c'est lâcheté."

The object of this book is to bring before the reader a simple and explicit description of the whole art of Riding and Managing a Horse, and to enable those who desire to improve themselves in Horsemanship, an opportunity of studying the principal rules that should be adopted under different circumstances, as they may chance to occur, and also to give a hint about the most appropriate costumes suitable to various occasions.
