NOTE

The object of this book is to tell the story of many of the stirring scenes of history through famous poems and ballads and short descriptions of each event. A glossary of the more unusual words used in the poems, and an explanation of the names of persons and places, are included at the end of the volume.

The selections from J. G. Whittier, Ralph Waldo Emerson, and Bret Harte are used by permission of Houghton-Mifflin Company, authorized publishers of their works, to whom thanks are hereby extended. Thanks are also due to Harper and Brothers for permission to use "The Little Black-Eyed Rebel," by Will Carleton, and "The Battle of New Orleans," by Thomas Dunn English, to Mr. Will Henry Thompson and the Century Company for the use of the former's poem, "High Tide at Gettysburg," and to David McKay for permission to use the poem entitled "O Captain! My Captain!" by Walt Whitman. "The Battle of Lexington," by Sidney Lanier, appears by special arrangement with Messrs. Charles Scribner's Sons.
