THE Author of this Book has simply to say that his object in writing it is to exalt Christ in the affections of His people; to furnish them with fresh motives to increased devotedness to Him; and, in connection with this, to impart consolation to the afflicted, to attract the awakened and encourage them to come to Jesus, and to arouse the formalist and the careless. That God may bless this humble effort to the accomplishment of the designs of His mercy, is the fervent prayer of the Author.
