In grateful recognition of the inestimable service which the sons and daughters of Adelpi Academy have rendered to their Alma Mater by their love, loyalty and high standing in the community.

TO THE ASSOCIATE ALUMNAE

The morning of May twenty-ninth, nineteen hundred and seven, was like hundreds of other mornings in the Adelphi horizon, but with the setting sun a new light came in. The State of New York had set its seal upon the charter of your society, which has been most helpful and has placed the Adelphi under a deep debt of gratitude. Names of its members figure in the columns of society news. They appear on Boards of Managers of many Benevolent Associations. They are known, loved and honored over this goodly city.
