THE POWER OF THOUGHT

"I hold it true that thoughts are things
Endowed with bodies, breath and wings,
And that we send them forth to fill
The world with good results—or ill.

That which we call our secret thought,
Speeds to the earth's remotest spot,
And leaves its blessings or its woes,
Like tracks behind it as it goes."

* * * * *

"We awaken in another
Just the thoughts our minds contain.
If we're kind, we win their kindness,
If we hate, they hate again.

We pass on to brother mortals
The vibrations of the soul,
And the knowing ones receive them,
As they search from pole to pole."

* * * * *

"We build our futures thought by thought,
Or good or bad, and know it not—
Yet so the universe is wrought.

Thought is another name for Fate,
Choose, then, thy destiny and wait—
For love brings love and hate brings hate."

P R E F A C E

In acquiring the information contained in this book, I lay no claim to having possessed a knowledge or power superior to that possessed by many other persons. I simply claim that after many years of close, conscientious study, to have touched a chord in Nature that responded and revealed to me the law which governs all intelligence, life and the change called death. After thoroughly testing this great power, I have decided to give the knowledge to the world. I do so with the full conviction that it will revolutionize, to a more or less degree, the life of every person who reads it.

I intentionally avoided the use of scientific terms in this book, for it was written for the people as a whole, and not simply as a scientific textbook. I have also avoided all statements that in any way flavored of the sensational or mysterious, because I have no desire to play upon the superstition inherent in humanity. I have not dealt with suppositions or possibilities, but have held strictly to the knowledge that has been thoroughly tested and demonstrated to the entire satisfaction of logical, thinking minds, because I wish to appeal only to the reason and intelligence in man.

I believe that there is one great source of all intelligence called "God;" that the mental and spiritual (mind and soul) are as one in Him and in us; that intelligence has always existed and always will exist. That we are all entitled to share alike in this great gift, and that we each gain all the knowledge we rightly seek and work for. That we are slaves or masters as a result of our ignorance or our choice. That man was created a free and independent being, and that he is bound in slavery only through his ignorance of the source of intelligence and the laws that govern life. That we can make or mar our careers upon this earth and in the life to come, and that it remains entirely with us to decide.

If you, dear reader, are a lover of truth, knowledge and intelligence, the contents of this book will satisfy your desires and give you mental food that you can easily assimilate.

It is to the people who seek truth that they may develop within themselves greater power, that I dedicate this work.
