FOREWORD

Owing to the difficulty in obtaining the information given herein, the compiler of this brief pamphlet is aware that inaccuracies must have occurred, although it is believed that in the main it is substantially correct.

He has so far been unable to secure data regarding the first five children of the Rev. George Gillmore other than that here given.

A much more detailed account of the life and travels of the Rev George Gillmore may be found in the 1913 volume of the "Transactions of the Royal Society of Canada," of Ottawa, under the title of "The Vicissitudes of a Loyalist Clergyman."

A list of the sources of information for that account (and to a slightly more limited degree for this account), is appended in the back of this pamphlet.

Grateful acknowledgement is made to all who loaned their aid in compiling the following data. Particular thanks are due to the Rev. Dr. A. W. H. Eaton, of Kings County, Nova Scotia and Boston, Massachusetts, for valuable assistance and advice.

DESCENDANTS OF THE
REV. GEORGE GILLMORE¹

In brief, and according to the best information at hand, the Rev. George Gillmore was born in 1720 in County Antrim, Ulster, Ireland, married in Ireland a Miss Allen, studied at the University of Edinburgh in 1762-63, emigrated to America with his wife and family in 1769 and landed safely at Philadelphia on September 9th.

Later he settled in Voluntown, Connecticut, from where he and his family were forced to flee during the Revolution, having been denounced by Governor Turnbull as a Tory.

From there he went to New York State and thence to Canada. From Canada he found his way to Nova Scotia, settling in Windsor in 1785. Six years later, 1791, he removed with his family to Horton. Here he lived and labored until his death some twenty years later, on September 30, 1811, at the age of 91.
