

HOW TO DO BUSINESS: OR,
THE SECRET OF SUCCESS IN
RETAIL MERCHANDIZING. A
BOOK FOR EVERY MERCHANT

Published @ 2017 Trieste Publishing Pty Ltd

ISBN 9780649608317

How to Do Business: Or, the Secret of Success in Retail Merchandizing. A Book for Every Merchant by George N. McLean

Except for use in any review, the reproduction or utilisation of this work in whole or in part in any form by any electronic, mechanical or other means, now known or hereafter invented, including xerography, photocopying and recording, or in any information storage or retrieval system, is forbidden without the permission of the publisher, Trieste Publishing Pty Ltd, PO Box 1576 Collingwood, Victoria 3066 Australia.

All rights reserved.

Edited by Trieste Publishing Pty Ltd.
Cover @ 2017

This book is sold subject to the condition that it shall not, by way of trade or otherwise, be lent, re-sold, hired out, or otherwise circulated without the publisher's prior consent in any form or binding or cover other than that in which it is published and without a similar condition including this condition being imposed on the subsequent purchaser.

www.triestepublishing.com

GEORGE N. MCLEAN

HOW TO DO BUSINESS: OR,
THE SECRET OF SUCCESS IN
RETAIL MERCHANDIZING. A
BOOK FOR EVERY MERCHANT

HOW TO DO BUSINESS,

OR THE

Secret of Success in Retail Merchandizing.

A BOOK

FOR EVERY MERCHANT,

BY

GEORGE N. McLEAN,

Containing Invaluable Information

—FOR—

EVERY BUSINESS MAN, CLERK OR STUDENT.

CHICAGO, ILL.:

JEFFERSON JACKSON, PUB.

1890.

CONTENTS.

CHAPTER I.

HOW TO DO BUSINESS.

Questions to be Solved. The Perilous Sea of Trade. Merchants and Professional Men Should Take their Soundings and Consult their Chart. Dangerous Reefs Amid the Undulating Billows of Human Interest. All do not Succeed. Why? What Success Implies. Possibilities for Every Man. Experience a Correct but Expensive Teacher. Profiting by the Past. To Parents. The Youthful Voyager. The Realm of Responsible Activity. Shipwreck Amid the Unknown Waters of Inexperience. Insolvency.

PAGES 14 TO 17.

CHAPTER II.

CHOOSING A BUSINESS OR PROFESSION.

Adaptation to Business. Location and Extent of Business. Amount of Capital Necessary. Nothing for the Sluggard. System, Diligence, and Sobriety, Requisites to Success. Spasmodic Efforts Useless. Purchasing in Keeping with Prevailing Tastes and Fashions. Dress and Deportment. Cause of Fluctuation in Prices. Stephen Girard's Warning Fans. Business a Science. Competent Clerks. Examples in Business. The Cash System. Cash and Credit. Friends in Prosperity. Length of Credit. Pleasure in Business. Avoid Political or Religious Discussions. Success and Failure Contrasted. Financial Depression. Sombre Clouds of Financial Difficulty at the Sunset of Life.

PAGES 18 TO 25.

CHAPTER III.

THE EBB AND FLOW OF BUSINESS.

The Flood-tide of Financial Prosperity, and Periodical Contractions from 1837 to 1860. The Panic of 1873. Cause of Depressions. Supply and Demand. The Buzzards of Trade. Calculating Profits. Rivalry and Its Effects. Cutting on Prices. Fair Dealing. Financial Standing of Customers. Country and City Business Contrasted. The Merchant Prince. His Successful Career. Turning Stock from One to Six Times a Year. Curtailing Expense. Gaining Experience. Fastidious Customers. Showing Goods. Reading Novels in the Store. The Lay of the Land. Which Way will the Town Spread? Accommodations for Customers. Purchasing an Established Business. Villanous Plotting. The Modern Store. Prelude to Insolvency.

PAGES 26 TO 33.

CHAPTER IV.

PURCHASING STOCK. FACTORS OF SUCCESS.

Catering to Suit the Tastes of Customers. Shades and Colors. Goods for All. Traveling and Hotel Bills. Estimating Yearly Sales. Making Out Lists. Keeping Within the Limits of Capital. The Goddess of Fancy. Purchase Judiciously. Styles for Each Season. The Eternal Fitness of Things. Commendable Caution. The Kid Glove Experience of a Retailer. The Auction Room. Unsalable Goods. A Great and Common Mistake. Determining the Amount of Credit by the Ready Cash Capital. Discounting Bills. Drifting in the Dark. Shadows of Impending Doom. Borrowing from Thrifty Neighbors. Depending upon Uncertainty. Monthly Statements. Months of Lively Trade. When Customers can Pay their Bills. Making Collections. Order is Heaven's First Law.

PAGES 34 TO 47.

CHAPTER V.

HOW TO OBTAIN CREDIT.

First, Be Worthy of It. It is Capital. Confidence Wins Respect. Truth and Honesty the Star of Success. Credit in the Bank of Happiness. Roses and Daffodils, and Siberian Snows. "Unto Him that Hath shall be Given." Creditor's Risk is in Keeping with the Dealer's Capital and Honesty. Prudence and Foresight. Duplicating Liabilities. Chaffey as an Example. The Highway to Prosperity. Letters of Recommendation. Forms of Letters of Recommendation. Letters of Credit upon the Countenance. Prejudice and Superstition. Abusing Confidence. Politics and Religion. An Unbridged Gulf. Detrimental Associations. Signing Statements. Criminal Action. Empty Hope and Well-grounded Hope. Believe you shall succeed, then try.
PAGES 48 to 54.

CHAPTER VI.

MARKING GOODS.

Arrangement of Goods. Damaged Goods. Stolen from Case. Compare Invoice. Responsibilities of a Common Carrier. Private Marks. Losses on Freight. Covering Incidental Expenses in Marking Goods. Marking Goods with Characters and Letters. Probable Deterioration of Goods. Master of the Situation. Examples. Thirty and Forty Per Cent Profits. Store Rent and Clerk's Salary. A Chicago Failure. Exercises for the Brain. Recreation. Time is Money. The Old Back Number Belt of Goods. Matching Goods by Sample. Good Light. Sky Light. The Perfect Salesman. A Higher Life. Laurels Won more valuable than Blood-stained Trophies of a Conquering Potentate.
PAGES 55 to 62.

CHAPTER VII.

ADVANTAGES OF ADVERTISING.

Most Men of Genius have Arisen from Obscurity. Discovering a Continent. Happiness of Success. All do not Succeed, but all May. Results Commensurate with Perseverance. Gaining Publicity to Business. Judicious Advertising. Auction Purchasing. Bankrupt and Damaged Goods at Minimum Prices. Ladies' Kid Boots worth $4.00 at $1.50. Advertising Special Sales. Booming Business. Handbills. Announcing the Arrival of New Goods through Papers. System and Order. Applause for Enterprise, yet Advise Caution.
PAGES 63 to 66.

CHAPTER VIII.

EMPLOYING CLERKS.

The Careful and Careless, Industrious and Indolent. Fitness or Unfitness for the Position. Their Moral Character. Shining Lights. Ambitious Young Men. Positions of Trust. The Art of Selling Goods. The Awkward Squad. The Dudeish Clerk. Arbitrary and Exacting. How to Secure a Good Clerk. Win by Kindness and Firmness. Future Son-in-law Partner in Business. Evils of Changing Clerks too Often. Shun the Clerk who frequents Low Dens or keeps Disreputable Company.
PAGES 67 to 69.

CHAPTER IX.

SELLING GOODS.

Fluency of Speech. Boorish Language. Pertinacious, Irrepressible, and Bantering. Intelligence, Education, and Refinement Pre-requisites. All Clerks not Salesmen. All Speakers not Orators. Pleasantness of Address. Treating his Customers. The Prodigal Son. Superciliousness. The Self-conceited Salesman. Church Member. Arguing with Customers. Curt Replies. Forbearance and Consideration.
PAGES 70 to 72.

CHAPTER X.

EXCLUSIVE CASH SALES.

The Safety of Spot Cash Transactions. No Tempting Capitalist or Wholesale Man. Advantages of Cash. Economy in Help. Clerks and Bookkeepers. Saving in Billing and Collecting. Happier and Better State of Society. The Tentacles of the Credit System. Mottoes upon the Walls of the Cash Dealer. For Cash Only. The Canker Worm of Care. The Growing Tendency to this System. Generous when Prompted by Feelings of Commiseration. So Mote It Be. PAGES 72 TO 76.

CHAPTER XI.

SELLING GOODS ON CREDIT.

Credit and Cash Contrasted. Indulgence of the Creditor. System and Promptness with Honesty may utilize Credit to Advantage. Promptness of Payment in the Honest often Contingent upon Outward Circumstances. Abundant Crops. The Intemperate and Vicious not to be Trusted. Also the Prodigal and Extravagant. Merchant Princes. Merchandising Honorable. Abbott Lawrence. Trade vs. War. Social Order. Every Man a Trader. PAGES 77 TO 79.

CHAPTER XII.

CASH AND CREDIT COMBINED.

Competing with Rival Stores. Restricting Credit Sales. The Reckless Creditor. Post-aging of the Day's Sales. How to Double the Amount of Sales. The New Railway Line Located. Striking Union Men. Putting off the Pay Day. The Rock of Financial Ruin. Regaining Financial Equilibrium. Wealth Power and Influence not Merely for Self-indulgence. A Well Regulated Commerce. Harbingers of Civilization. PAGES 80 TO 82.

CHAPTER XIII.

CAUSE OF SUCCESS AND FAILURE.

What the Philadelphia Merchants Say. Superinducing Causes. Incompetent Dealers. The Baronial Mansion of the Merchant. Free and Easy Merchants. Domestic Relation. The Overshadowing Cloud. Luck, and Dame Fortune. What Success Implies. Real and Imaginary. Financiering. Honest Toil is Preferable. Capital and Character are often Lost Together. Speculation in Futures. What Caused his Failure? Perseverance. Fortune as the Reward of Merit. PAGES 83 TO 85.

CHAPTER XIV.

PROMPT SETTLEMENT.

Its Advantages. Insolvent in Reputation. Stepping-stones to the Vestibule of Bankruptcy. Drifting Outward. The Day of Doom on the Darkening Horizon of Commercial Enterprise. Settling by Notes. Borrowing to Meet Payments. Stereotyped Customers. Extract from Judge Hopkins, of Pennsylvania, a Lecture in 1839. Speculative Speculation. The Value of Character. The Name of George Washington. Unswerving Fidelity. Wealth a Passport to Society. Correct Education. Chicago and Athens. The Mainstrom of Character. Hug the Shore of Honesty, and make Character Supreme. PAGES 86 TO 88.

CHAPTER XV.

DEPRECIATION OF GOODS.

Scientific Facts. New Processes. Modern Machinery. Changes of Fashion. Old and Soiled Back Number Goods. The Desire for Something New, Natural. Getting Rid of Old and Worthless Goods. Getting Original Cost for Remnants. The Blessings of Trade and Commerce. It Humanizes Man, by Peaceful and Social Influence. A Redeemed Nation. PAGES 89 TO 90.

CHAPTER XVI.

LOSSES IN BUSINESS, WHICH OCCUR TO THE MERCHANT.

Dishonest and Pilfering Clerks. Shoplifting. Losses by Fire. Burglary. Depreciating Goods. Trusting to Memory. Selling to Irresponsible and Dishonest Customers. Dissipations Incur Losses. The Merchant's Social Position. What Constitutes a Dishonorable Act. One Priced Store. A Haggling Customer. Florence and Her Merchants. Merchants of England Sit in the House of Lords. Character of the True Merchant. PAGES 91 TO 93.

CHAPTER XVII.

EXPENSES AND ACCOUNTS.

The End Sought After. The Sure Path to Wealth. Spend Less than you Earn. Compare Profits and Losses. The Avenues of Trouble. Extravagance and Parsimony. Domestic Economy. Living Within the Income. Rules for the Guidance of Beginners. Jeopardizing the Reputation. Justice to Employees. Charitable to the Poor. A Shrine in Bank and Church. Clean Amid the Dust of Commerce. PAGES 94 TO 96.

CHAPTER XVIII.

CO-PARTNERSHIP AND ITS ADVANTAGES.

Joint Abilities of Two or More. Strength of United Effort. One Has Capital, the other Experience. Co-partnership Entered into by Indentures. Dissolution of Co-partnership by Mutual Consent. One Partner Forcing a Dissolution. Serious Financial Difficulty the Result. Buying Out a Partner. Trickery and Duplicity. Leaving the Flower-decked Meadows for the Lawyer's Desk. The Honest Man Ennobles the Toll, and Commands Success. PAGES 97 TO 99.

CHAPTER XIX.

BUSINESS AND SOCIAL INTERCOURSE.

Why Men Engage in Business. Difference Between Friends and Acquaintances. Dispensing Kindness to Advantage. The Well-spring of Inward Joy and Financial Success. Wasplish Rudeness and Its Effect on Business. Social and Benevolent Institutions. Soliciting Patronage at Social Gatherings an Odious Custom. Diverting Troubles into Diverse Channels by Employment. The Political Canoe. The Wide and Comprehensive Knowledge of the Merchant. PAGES 100 TO 102.

CHAPTER XX.

PROPER INVESTMENT OF PROFITS.

Extravagant Appropriations. Be Sure you have Profits before you Invest them. What Proportion of Profits to Invest. Neglecting Business to look after Invested Profits. Steering Clear of Breakers. The Skillful General. A Familiar Problem. The Methodical Routine. The Mutations of Traffic. Errors in Judgment. Things which Baffle Human Sagacity. Order and System Bid Defiance to Misfortune and Defeat. PAGES 103 TO 104.

CHAPTER XXI.

INSOLVENCY, ITS CAUSE AND PREVENTION.

A Point of Justice Between the Insolvent and Creditor. Where to Draw the Line. Protection for the Creditor. The Age of Barbarism. Taking the Last Dollar. Imprisonment for Debt. The Year of Jubilee. The Liberality of the Mosaic Law. Legal Coercion to Enforce Payment. How a Dealer may become Hopelessly Insolvent, and Promptly Pay his Mature Bills from Sales, yet Owe for Goods. The Fundamental Principles of Success. PAGES 105 TO 106.

CONTENTS.

9

CHAPTER XXII.

QUALIFICATIONS NECESSARY TO INSURE SUCCESS.

Financial Endowments and Literary Attainments. Traits of Character. Economy in Minor Details. Exemption from Temptations. Maintaining Integrity Amid Strong Influences for Evil. Character for Eternity. Struggles with Inborn Selfishness. Benefits of Adverse Circumstances. Integrity as Capital in Trade. Bailing at Fortune. Flooding Men often Succeed. Promptness. Behind Time. The Tardy General and the Disastrous Results. Examples. PAGES 109 TO 113.

CHAPTER XXIII.

MERCANTILE EXAMPLES.

Contains Twenty-five Practical Examples on Actual Business. Problems which Constantly Occur. PAGES 114 TO 117.

CHAPTER XXIV.

EXPENSES OF DOING BUSINESS.

Mistake in Miscalculating the Probable Expense of Doing Business. All Should Figure Well the Cost. Fatal Result in Not Carefully Counting the Cost of Doing Business. The Wide Difference Between Gross and Net Profit. Method Indispensable. Twelve Wise Business Maxims. PAGES 118 TO 121.

CHAPTER XXV.

VOCABULARY OF BUSINESS TERMS.

A Voluminous List of Business and Commercial Terms, Covering All Usual Affairs of Business. PAGES 122 TO 130.

CHAPTER XXVI.

PREPARATION FOR BUSINESS.

Absolute Necessity for Business Education. The Virtue of Money. What is Business? What is the End of Business? Business the Great Promoter of Happiness in Mankind. Idleness a Parent Vice. Business the Great Test of a Man's Calibre. Necessity of Knowledge of the True Principles of Business. Commerce an Important Branch of Civilization. The Magnitude and Grandeur of a Successful Business Life. PAGES 131 TO 137.

CHAPTER XXVII.

SECURE THE CONFIDENCE OF CUSTOMERS.

A Prime Reason for the Non-success of a Large Portion of Retail Merchants. Necessity for a Thorough Knowledge of One's Business. Are you Master of your Business, and Have you Habits of Business? Many Fortunes the Result of Superior Business Cultivation. Success Sure for those who Follow the Cardinal Principles Set Down. PAGES 138 TO 141.

VALUABLE HINTS!

Comprising Short Chapters and Paragraphs on Business Methods, Systems, Rules, Etc.

The Office End. Business Success. The Evil of Endorsing. Profits in Business. Penalties of Credit—An Instance which Shows a Common Phase of a Bad System. Be a Specialist. Drudging and Working. The Happy Medium. Bargain Hunters. Handling Customers—Tricks in Trade which Some Clerks are Said to Have Practiced; Stratagems Declared to be Unusually Successful. Strict Business Methods. The Difference in Men. Conservatism in Business. A Cash Basis. Genius. Endorsing. A Business Chesterfield. How to Wait on a Customer. The Demand for Intelligent Assistants. Protested Notes. The Road to Riches—Good Advice that may be Briefly Summed Up in the Injunction, Mind Your Own Business; Business Recreations; the Desirability of Not Carrying your Business Beyond your Store Door. Integrity in Business. Does Courtesy Pay? An Example to Clerks. Stick to What You Know. Avoid Debt. Avarice. Checking off Goods. A Good Business Quality. Not Above One's Business. "Business is Business." What Sells Goods? Compromises and Insurance. Value of Method. True Enterprise. Selling Goods at Cost. Some Elements of Success. Why Rich Men's Sons Nearly Always Fail. Who Shall Draw the Trade? Developing Genius. Overdue Accounts. What is Profit? Earnestness in Business. How to Get Rich—Russell Sage Gives the Young Men a Few Points on Business Prosperity; His Own Fortune $50,000,000; the Financier Says Any One may Grow Wealthy by Intelligence and Industry. Credit. Many Men of Many Minds. Shall It Be Success or Failure? Business Confidence. The Good Side of Competition. Dry Rot. Don't Be Mean in Trade. Great Mistakes of Business Men. Concentration. Where Successful Business Men Come From. The Golden Rule in Business. The Value of Time to Business Men. PAGES 142 TO 207.

