PREFACE

Being asked by General Woodward's brother to prepare a memoir of the General, and understanding that it was the desire of the family, I undertook the task, regretting, however, that I was not better qualified to adequately portray the amiable and notable character of my friend.

Especial acknowledgment is due to General George W. Wingate for assistance in the narrative of General Woodward's military service. Professor Franklin W. Hooper is entitled to thanks for collating the facts of General Woodward's association with the Brooklyn Institute.

E. R. K.

Brooklyn, May, 1897.
