INTRODUCTORY NOTE.

VIEWING with deep interest, from time to time, those who leave the House of Worship when the Lord's Supper is to be administered, the thought has presented itself of preparing a volume which might, in some parts of it, be interesting as well as useful to them.

While, therefore, this book is also designed for Communicants, they to whom it owes its origin are kept in mind.

And while the book, as a Communicant's companion, does not follow the useful, ordinary method of a series of questions addressed to the communicant, it is hoped and believed that it will no less lead him to examine himself, and so to eat of that bread and drink of that cup.
