

LETTERS FROM THE EAST

Published @ 2017 Trieste Publishing Pty Ltd

ISBN 9780649303335

Letters from the East by William Cullen Bryant

Except for use in any review, the reproduction or utilisation of this work in whole or in part in any form by any electronic, mechanical or other means, now known or hereafter invented, including xerography, photocopying and recording, or in any information storage or retrieval system, is forbidden without the permission of the publisher, Trieste Publishing Pty Ltd, PO Box 1576 Collingwood, Victoria 3066 Australia.

All rights reserved.

Edited by Trieste Publishing Pty Ltd.
Cover @ 2017

This book is sold subject to the condition that it shall not, by way of trade or otherwise, be lent, re-sold, hired out, or otherwise circulated without the publisher's prior consent in any form or binding or cover other than that in which it is published and without a similar condition including this condition being imposed on the subsequent purchaser.

www.triestepublishing.com

WILLIAM CULLEN BRYANT

LETTERS FROM THE EAST

A STREET IN CAIRO

LETTERS FROM THE EAST.

BY

WILLIAM CULLEN BRYANT.

---

NEW YORK:

G. P. PUTNAM & SON,
1869.

TO THE READER.

---

THE Letters which form the contents of this volume were written in the course of a visit made to the Old World in the closing months of the year 1852, and the first six months of the year following. The author has been induced to collect and present them in this form by the encouragement of the Publisher, who thought that the volume might be fortunate enough to find readers.

NEW YORK, September 1, 1869.

CONTENTS.

---

LETTER I.

Contraband books.—Striceness of the Custom-house Officers.—Captain Lynch and his book.—Poetry in the Custom-house.—England deluged with rain.—Prosperity of England in 1852.—Emigration to Australia.....	9
---	---

LETTER II.

Return of gaiety and commercial activity in Paris.—The Credit Mobilier .—The Empire succeeding a Republic which has lost its liberties. The new Emperor conducted to the Tuilleries.—Absence of enthusiasm in the people.—Motives of those who voted for the Empire.—Acquiescence of all parties in the Empire.—Huntington the artist.....	16
---	----

LETTER III.

Nîmes, its Roman remains, Amphitheatre, Maison Carrée and Pont du Gard.—Amphitheatre at Arles.—The Boulevards.—Roman baths.—Public garden.—Dryness of the climate.—The fountain of the Esplanade.—Delaroche's picture of Cromwell contemplating Charles I. in his coffin.....	24
---	----

LETTER IV.

Security from accident on board the Mediterranean steamers.—Discomforts of a small steamer.—Fine view of the Maritime Alps from the water.—A day in Genoa.—Vexations of the passport system.—Pasture Amalfi.—Neapolitan boatmen.—Beauty of the coast.—Songs of the boatmen.—Peculiarities of Neapolitan pronunciation.—Excursion to Procida.—Sickly inhabitants.—Messina.—Malta.—La Valletta.—The Catholic church in Malta.....	34
---	----

LETTER V.

Voyage from Malta to Cairo.—A steamer crowded with passengers from England to India.—Ill-bred people.—Fortune, the botanist.—The tea-plant in America and India.—The grape in China and Japan.—A Chinese fruit for America.—A hardy palm.—Arrived at Alexandria.—Confusion of the landing.—Passage to Cairo.—The canal.—the Nile.—Arab devotions.—Youth drowned in the Nile.....	55
--	----

LETTER VI.

- Sights and sounds of Cairo.—Aspect of the crowd in the streets.—Women.—The bazaars.—The barbers.—Mosques.—Noday habits of the Egyptians.—Mosque of Mohammed Ali.—The pyramids of Ghizeh.—Arab boatmen.—Bedouins.—Purpose of the pyramids.—Pyramids of Sakkara.—M. Mariette and his excavations.—Temple and tomb of Apis.—The site of Memphis.—Mounds of sun-dried brick.—Vast grove of palms.—Salt-petre manufactured from the bricks..... 69

LETTER VII.

- Passage in a steamer up the Nile to Thebes and the lower cataract of the Nile.—Arrangements for the voyage.—Beauty of the weather.—Upper Egypt, its aspect.—Irrigation.—Villages.—Scarcity of fruit-trees.—Rocky hills overlooking the narrow valley of the Nile.—The Temples of Thebes and Karnac.—A French excavator, M. Mognier.—Uncovering of old temples.—Tyranny of the Egyptian authorities.—A Latin convent.—Copts.—Their church..... 89

LETTER VIII.

- Journey from Cairo to Jerusalem across the Little Desert.—Gardens enclosed by the prickly pear.—Olive-trees.—Sycamore of the Virgin.—The Obelisk of Heliopolis.—Village of Khankia.—Lake of the Pilgrims.—Brief twilight.—Journey on camels.—Hippocrene.—Entrance on the Desert.—Our dragoman.—The father of couriers.—Furniture of our caravan.—Ground strewn with fragments of pottery.—An Arab burial-ground.—Village of Belhays ..... 102

LETTER IX.

- Second, third, fourth, fifth, and sixth days of our journey.—A visit from two Arab women.—Coquetry of the younger.—Horsemanship of the Arabs.—A belt of cultivation in the Desert.—Rassel Wady.—Flocks of birds.—Irrigation.—Arabs singing.—A dragoman flogs an Arab.—A camel runs away.—A mirage.—Barook.—Pilgrims from Mecca.—A sirocco.—Dead camels.—A monkey digging sorrel.—Violence of the wind.—Our tents overturned at night.—Gatich.—Personal appearance of the Arabs.—Vermilion..... 113

LETTER X.

- Seventh, eighth, and ninth days of our journey.—Bedouin huts.—Women at the hand-mills.—A salt-plain.—Ruins of a tower.—A well in the Desert.—Brackish water.—Arabs amusing themselves with our monkey.—Flocks of goats and sheep.—Importunity of the flies.—We meet a merchants' caravan.—Moequitos.—Animal life in the

Desert.—Tracks of jackals and gazelles.—Sight of the Mediterranean.—Shrubs of the Desert.—Minute flowers.—Herd of camels feeding.—Pools of water in the salt-plains.—Springs of mineral oil.—Cry of the jackal.—Town of El Areeesh.—Plantations of young palms.—Sand-hills and drifts.—Fruit-trees.....	127
---	-----

LETTER XI.

Tenth day of the journey.—Picturesque costumes.—Spirited horses and horsemanship.—Trouble with passports.—Barley-fields.—Women cutting up Juniper.—Tributes to the Arab.—An Arab exquisite.—A pastoral region.—Another tribute.—A salt-lake.—Safidydu.—Tomb of a Santon.—Flocks of birds.—Frightful scream of a jackal.—Reading the Scriptures.—A troupe of dervishes.—An Arab cemetery.....	148
--	-----

LETTER XII.

Cultivated fields between bare sand-hills.—Ruins of Raphia.—The virgin's fountain.—Khan Yoonas.—Fruit-trees in bloom.—Our party in quarantine.—We pass the night in a cemetery.—A crowd of women in white, among the graves.—Oruqos.—Distinguished-looking visitors.—Departure from Khan Yoonas.—Pilgrim.—The scarlet anemone.—Old eucalyptus.—Men ploughing with camels.—We enter the lazaretto at Gaza.—View of the country from our windows.—Foolish look of the dervishes.—Our monkey attacks one of the holy men.—An Arab virago.—Show of tongues.—Release from the lazaretto.....	157
---	-----

LETTER XIII.

Continuation of the journey to Jerusalem.—The Gate of Gaza.—A vast olive-grove.—Curious travelling cradle.—Remains of a Christian church.—Askelon.—Ancient walls.—Sand drifting over the fields.—El Medjal.—Little oxen.—Rude ploughs.—Ashdod.—Ruins of a large Khan.—A chorus of frogs.—Gazelles feeding.—Village of Zebua.—Surceeing bridges.—Women carrying burdens.—Town of Ramleh.—An abandoned tower.—Plain of Sharon.—A convent, where we pass the night.—The mosquitoes from the cisterns.....	168
--	-----

LETTER XIV.

Journey to Jerusalem continued.—We take our leave of the Arabs and their camels.—Journey on horseback.—Queer bridles and saddles.—A janizary of the American Vice-Council at Jerusalem.—His long staff.—Entrance upon the hill-country.—A lurch under evergreen oaks.—Steep ascent by a bridle-path.—Sure-footed horses.—Soil full of loose stones.—Its fertility.—First sight of the Holy City.—The
--