CHAPTER I.

“INTERRUPTED.”

“It is a familiar beast to man, and signifies love.”
—MERRY WIVES OF WINDSOR.

BETTY had been unremitting in her attention to Miss Dopping all through the winter, and her virtue was not to be her sole reward! The old lady hired a pair of post-chaises, and drove out to Noone in her mother's green chariot, and had a long private interview with Mrs. Redmond. She was going to the Moores of Roskeen for a week, and they had asked her to bring Betty.—It would be by no means Betty's first visit to that
