THE APOSTASY OF THE LATTER TIMES.

A Treatise on 1 Timothy, chap. iv., ver. 1, 2, &c.

CHAP. I.—The Dependence of the Text upon the last Verse of the preceding Chapter—Why, in the Description of the Mystery of Godliness, the Words (assumed into Glory) are set last—Division of the Subject—The Author's three Reasons for rendering the Text differently from the common Translation .....	3
CHAP. II.—Apostasy in the Scripture imports "Revolt" or "Rebellion"—That "Idolatry" is such, is proved from several Passages in Scripture—By "Spirits," in the Text, are meant "Doctrines"—Doctrines of Demons are to be taken passively, viz. for Doctrines concerning Demons—Several Instances of the like Form of Speech in the Scriptures .....	7
CHAP. III.—Demons (according to the Theology of the Gentiles,) were—1. For their Nature and Degree, a middle Sort of Divine Powers between the Sovereign Gods and Mortal Men—2. For their Office, they were supposed to be Mediators and Agents between the Celestial Gods and Men.—This proved from Plato, Plutarch, Apuleius, Celsus in Origen, and St. Austin—The Doctrine of the Mediation of Demons glanced at, and reproved by the Apostles. Coloss. ii. 8.—The Distinction of Sovereign Gods and Demons proved out of the Old Testament, and elegantly alluded to in the New. 1 Cor. viii. 5, 6. ....	11
CHAP. IV.—The Gentiles' Doctrine concerning the Original

of Demons, viz. that they were the Souls of Men deified, or canonized, after Death—This proved out of Hesiod, Plato, Trismegist, Philo Biblius, the Translator of Sanchoniathon, Pintarch, Tully—Baal, or Bel, or Belus, the first deified King; hence Demons are called in Scripture, Baalim—Demons and Heroes, how they differ—Demons, called by the Romans Penates, Lares, as also Dii Animate, Soul Gods—Another and a higher Kind of Demons, such as never dwelt in Bodies: these answer to Angels, as the other (viz. the Soul Demons) answer to Saints ..... 17

CHAP. V.—The Manner and Way of worshipping the Demons and retaining their presence, viz. by consecrated Images and Pillars—That Images were as Bodies for Demons to animate and dwell in—The Worshipping of Images and Columns a piece of the Doctrines of Demons—This proved out of Trismegist, Porphyry, Arnobius, Minucius Felix, &c.—The Worshipping of Demons in their Reliques, Shrines, and Sepulchres, another piece of Demon Doctrine—That the Gentiles' Temples were nothing but the Sepulchres of dead Men—The gross Idolatry of the Egyptians ..... 23

CHAP. VI.—A Recapitulation or Summary of the Doctrines of Demons—How the Severals thereof are revived and resembled in the Apostate Christian Church—That the word "Demon" is sometimes in Scripture taken according to the Theology of the Gentiles, and not always for an Evil Spirit—That it is so to be taken in the Text was the Judgment of Epiphanius; an observable Passage quoted out of him to this purpose..... 29

CHAP. VII.—Why these Words in the Description of the Mystery of Godliness (received into Glory) are set last—That praying to Saints glorified, as Mediators and Agents for us with God, is Idolatry—For the Proof of this several Grounds are laid down—To be prayed to "in Heaven," to present our Devotions to God, and to deal as an Agent and Mediator between us and Him, is a "Prerogative" appropriate to Christ, a Flower of his Glory and Exaltation to sit at God's right Hand, a Royalty incommunicable to any other—That none but Christ our High Priest is to be an Agent for us with God in the Heavens, was figured under the Law, in that the High Priest alone had to do in the most holy place, and there was to be Agent for the People—That though Christ in regard of his Person was capable of this God-like Glory and Royalty, yet it was the Will of God that he should purchase it by suffering an unmitable Death—This proved from several Testimonies of Scripture

CONTENTS.

—Saint Worship is a Denial of Christ's Prerogative— Bread-Worship in the Eucharist, to what kind of Idolatry it may be reduced—How Saint-Worship crept into the Church .....	37
CHAP. VIII.—That Idolatry is the main Character of the Church's Apostasy, proved by three Arguments.....	50
CHAP. IX.—An Exception against the foregoing Assertion— That Antichristianism cannot be charged upon those that acknowledge the true God and Christ—The Answer to this, wherein is interwoven the Author's serious and pathetic Expostulation with the Church of Rome—That Antichrist is a Counter-Christ, and his coming a Counter Resem- blance of the Coming of Christ, shewed in several Partic- ulars .....	53
CHAP. X.—The second Particular in the Description of the great Apostasy, viz. the Persons apostatizing expressed by TINEE, some —The great Apostasy was to be a general one—The word [TINEE, some ] doth not always imply a few , or a small number, proved by several Passages in Scripture—The true Church of Christ was never wholly extinguished—Wherein we and the Papists differ about the Church's Visibility—In what respects our Church was visible, and in what it was invisible, under the Apostasy and Reign of Antichrist—This is further cleared by the parallel State of the Israelitish Church under the Apostasy of Israel.....	60
CHAP. XI.—The third Particular, or the Time of the Apos- tasy—That the Last Times in Scripture signify either a Continuation of Time, or an End of Time—That the Last Times simply and in general are the Times of Christi- anity; the Last Times in special and comparatively, or the Latter Times of the Last Times, are the Times of the Apostasy under Antichrist—That the Times are set out to us to be as Marks to inform us when the Things to fall out in them should come to pass; and not the Things intended for Signs to know the Times by—This Observa- tion illustrated from Dan. viii.....	70
CHAP. XII.—A more particular Account of the Last Times in general, and of the Latter Times of the Last Times— That the four Kingdoms of Daniel are the Great Calendar (as the LXX Weeks the Lesser Calendar) of Times—That the Times of the fourth or Last Kingdom (that is, the Roman) are the Last Times meant in Scripture—That the Latter Times of the Last Times are the Latter Times of the fourth Kingdom, wherein the Great Apostasy should prevail .....	76

CHAP. XIII.—Two Enquiries concerning the Latter Times— I. What Durance they are to be of—Answ. That the Times of the Antichristian State are to last Forty-two Months, or Twelve Hundred and Sixty Days—That hereby cannot be meant Three Single Years and a Half, proved by several Particulars.—Enquiry II. When they begin—Answ. That they take their Beginning from the mortal Wound of the Imperial Sovereignty of Rome, or the Ruin of the Roman Empire—This proved from the Apocalypse and 2 Thess. ii. where by “that which letteth” the Fathers generally understand the Roman Empire—The same further proved from Dan. vii.—That by the little Horn is meant Antichrist or the Man of Sin (and not Antiochus Epiphanes), was the Judgment of the most Ancient Fathers .....	79
CHAP. XIV.—That we are not to reckon the Latter Times, or the Times of the Empire’s Ruin and the Apostasy attending, from the full Height thereof: this illustrated from other Computations in Scripture—The three main Degrees of the Roman Empire’s Ruin—Who are those three Kings whom the little Horn (or Antichrist) is said, in Dan. vii., to have dispianted or depressed, to advance himself—About what time Saint-Worship began in the Church—That we are not too curiously to inquire from which of the three Degrees of the Empire’s Ruin the Apostatical or Latter Times take their Beginning .....	85
CHAP. XV.—That Daniel’s Seventy Weeks are a Lesser Calendar of Times—That in reference to these Weeks must those Phrases in the Epistles to the Converted Jews, viz., “the last hour or Time,” “the end of all things,” “the day approaching,” etc., be expounded of the end of the Jewish State and Service at the expiry of the Seventy Weeks—That the Apostles were not so mistaken as to believe the End of the World should be in their Days, proved against Baronius and other Romanists .....	93
CHAP. XVI.—The fourth Particular, viz. the Warrant or Proof of this Prophecy—When the Spirit speaks expressly, and when by secret Instinct or Inspiration—That the Spirit foretold the Great Apostasy expressly in Dan., chap. xi., verses xxxvi—xxxix—An exact Translation of these Verses, both in Latin and English—The chief Difficulties in them explained, and incidentally other places of Scripture—The different Opinions of Junius and Graserus about verse xxxviii.—The Author's Translation free from the Inconveniences of both—A particular Explication of "Mahoz," and "Mahuzzim": that hereby are meant Fortresses, Bulwarks, as also Protectors, Guardians, Defenders, &c.—How fitly this Title is applicable to Angels and Saints, accounted to be such by those that worshipped them ..... 100

CHAP. XVII.—A particular Explication (by way of Paraphrase) of the forementioned Prophecy in Dan. xi—This further illustrated by several Observations, wherein the Events are represented as exactly suitable and applicable to Daniel's Prophecy—That at the Beginning of Saint-Worship in the Church, Saints and their Relics were called Bulwarks, Fortresses, Walls, Towers, Guardians, Protectors, etc., according to the native Signification of the Word used by Daniel, Mahuzzim—A brief Explication of the following Verses in Daniel xi., viz. xl., xli., xlii., xliii..... 110

PART II.

CHAP. I.—PART II.—The Author's Three Reasons for Translating the Text differently from the Common Versions—That the Preposition ('Ev) in the Text signifies through or by—Other Places of Scripture where it signifies likewise Causem or Modum Actionis..... 3

CHAP. II.—PART II.—The Words of the Text explained—That for the Character or Quality of the Persons that made way for, or brought in the Great Apostasy, some were Liars, some had seared Consciences, some forbade Marriage and Meats; others were guilty of all these Imputations—What is meant by the Hypocrisy of Liars—That this appeared in three Things: 1. Lies of Miracles; 2. Fabulous Legends; 3. Counterfeit Writings under the name of Antiquity—That Lies of Miracles appeared in, 1. their Forgery; 2. Illusion; 3. Misapplication—What is meant by having seared Consciences—That the strange and indecent Tales wherewith the Legends and the like Writings are stuffed, argue those that did either vent or believe them to be men of seared (that is, hard and unfeeling) Consciences—Some Instances of the Indecency of those Stories ..... 6

CHAP. III.—PART II.—That the Worship of Saints and their Reliques was brought in and promoted by the Hypo-
