ILLUSTRATIONS

- "I saw then that I had not thoroughly domesticated my automobile" . . . Frontispiece
- FACING PAGE
- "By the time I had spaded all day I began to have a pretty well defined opinion of gardens and how large they should be" . . . 8
- "'Well,' she said thoughtfully, 'I know of an excellent coloured man in Lower Westcote, that we can hire by the day'" . . . 26
- "But I told her it would inconvenience the traffic on the street before our house if we moved our house far enough into the street to permit putting a stable of that size in our backyard" . . . 40
- "The two of them would take hold of a board, one at either end, and hold it in their hands, and look at it, and think" . . . 54
- "Isobel and I gathered about him and talked as fast as we could" . . . 74
- "So we three went and looked over the ground again" . . . 96
