PREFACE.

THE lectures contained in this volume were delivered in St. Andrew's Church, Wilmington, under the auspices of The Church Club of Delaware. Although they were not given as a continuous course upon any assigned subject; each author having given expression to his own convictions and being alone responsible for them, yet there will be found such an order in the topics as to give them place in one volume.

They are published with the hope that they may give their readers some of the great pleasure and edification that they afforded those whose privilege it was to hear them.

It is to be regretted that the first lecture of the course by the Rt. Rev. Wm. F. Adams, D. C. L., Bishop of Easton, upon "Charity and Loyalty," is not contained in the volume. It was delivered without notes, and could not be reproduced by the author.
