Introductory Notice.

THE greater part of these Essays were contributed to the pages of the Christian Advocate during the last three or four years of its existence. They were intended to form a kind of sequel to the little volume already compiled from contributions to the same Periodical, under the title of "Evangelical Teaching."

They are now presented in the hope that these few scattered thoughts, on some topics much discussed at the present moment, may suggest to abler pens to follow up these subjects more fully and exhaustively.

E. JANE WHATELY.

LEE, KENT.
September, 1876.
