THE following pages were written before their writer had perused any work on the subject. She is induced to publish them, from the hope that the comfort they gave her own soul may be felt by others. She is perfectly aware of their many imperfections; but "crumbs" are not despised by Him who numbers "the hairs of the head," and who blesses even a "cup of cold water" given in His Name who has "loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood. To Him be glory for ever and ever. Amen."—Rev. i. 5, 6.

A note or two have been added from Durham's "Clavis Cantici," read afterwards.

CANNES, VAR., May, 1856.
