AUTHOR'S NOTE

This first English translation of my essay, "Staatsbürgerliche Erziehung der Deutschen Jugend," was made at my request, and has been reviewed by me with the translator. It is the only authorized English translation; and I am glad The Commercial Club of Chicago deems the essay of sufficient value to give it to the thoughtful readers of America and England.

GEORG KERSCHENSTEINER.

A FOREWORD

The Commercial Club of Chicago, recognizing the imperative need of practical, vocational training to supplement present public school courses, has engaged Dr. Edwin G. Cooley, formerly Superintendent of Schools of Chicago, to investigate the industrial education systems of Europe, with a view to learning what place such courses of study should have in the public school systems of America.

In pursuit of this task the Club has secured the English translation of Dr. Georg Kerschensteiner's prize essay entitled "Education for Citizenship." This is the first presentation in English of the theories which Dr. Kerschensteiner has so successfully demonstrated in the now famous continuation schools of Munich.
