TO THE READER.

THE following lines, which I feel are full of faults, I dedicate to my dear Husband.

Most of them have been written under the pressure of severe bodily and mental suffering; but if, through the power of God's grace, they are permitted to be the means by which some souls are led to a stronger faith, more earnest seeking, and truer child-like trust in God's love, what a cause for thankfulness there will be

To one so unworthy as,

Yours in Truth,

EMMA · MUIR.
