TO
MISS EDITH HASTINGS
HEADMISTRESS OF
THE WIMBLEDON HIGH SCHOOL
I DEDICATE THIS BOOK
AS A MARK OF
MY ESTEEM AND GRATITUDE

NOTE

It is impossible adequately to express my gratitude to the many friends who have taken a warm interest in these Readers.

I owe especial thanks

To Miss HASTINGS, in whose school it has been my privilege to teach. Every facility has been given me for the working out of the scheme, and it is entirely due to her kind encouragement that the plans have ever developed.

To Mr WALTER CRANE for the sympathetic interest he has shown in the Readers and for his charming illustrations, which will give so much joy to the children and will help them so greatly to the appreciation of their mother-tongue.

To Dr H. FRANK HEATH for the keen interest he has taken in the work, and for his delightful "First Talk about English."

To Mr WALTER RIPP MANN, who has shown unwearying kindness in going through the whole work with me, and to whom I am indebted for most helpful suggestions and advice, his sympathy with the child mind rendering his aid singularly valuable.
