Dedication

To the one whose sympathy, faith, and works have been life's constant support, inspiration, and incitement,

MY WIFE,

this book is affectionately dedicated.

PREFACE

THE chapters in this volume were originally published as editorials in the Sunday School Times, to which paper, and to its accomplished editor, Charles Gallaudet Trumbull, grateful acknowledgment is hereby made. While covering a rather wide range of title and topic, they will be found to be expositions of one central theme, the development and operation of character under the hand of God, through the faith and work of the Christian, in his threefold relationship,—to God, to himself, and to his fellows.

They are gathered here with the hope that they may be of help to some who, in the midst of the intricate duties and difficult problems of our present-day life, are seeking to do justly, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with their God, assured that it is God who worketh in them both to will and to work, of his good pleasure.
