THE CRUCIFIXION.

"And he said unto them, Is a candle brought to be put under a bushel, or under a bed? and not to be put on the candlestick?

"For there is nothing hid, which shall not be manifested; neither was anything kept secret, but that it should come abroad.

"If any man have ears to hear, let him hear."—Mark iv. 21, 22, 23.

You will perceive that the sayings of Jesus recorded in the above verses are in marked contrast with the ideas and opinions of many theologians of the present time, who declare that there are certain mysteries that are unfathomable to the mind of man and we should not seek to understand them. Jesus declared that every hidden thing must be made manifest; and that every secret thing should come to light. "If any man have ears to hear, let him hear."

One of the greatest mysteries to be found in the New Testament is the Crucifixion; and if we have eyes to see and ears to hear, new light may come to our souls out of this mystery of the past. We may discern a greater truth and arrive at truer and holier interpretations. If the heart is
