PREFACE

Permission to use in this work any part of the Historical Sketch of the Unitarian Church of Washington, D. C., written in 1909 by me, and copyrighted by the Columbia Historical Society, District of Columbia, was granted May 16, 1921, by Mr. Allen C. Clark, president of the Historical Society.

In the preparation of the history I have been helped, in the matter of arrangement, by the criticisms and suggestions of Mr. H. Barrett Learned, sometime a member of the Department of History of Stanford University. For this help I am very thankful.

Mr. William L. Brown of the Library of Congress gave me the benefit of thoughtful criticism worthy the gratitude I here express.

I have to thank the Rev. F. C. Southworth, President of Meadville Theological School, for information concerning several of the early ministers of the Unitarian church of Washington.

To Harold H. Scudder, Associate Professor
