

A CHANGE OF AIR; PP. 1-206

Published @ 2017 Trieste Publishing Pty Ltd

ISBN 9780649035380

A Change of Air; pp. 1-206 by Katharine Fullerton Gerould

Except for use in any review, the reproduction or utilisation of this work in whole or in part in any form by any electronic, mechanical or other means, now known or hereafter invented, including xerography, photocopying and recording, or in any information storage or retrieval system, is forbidden without the permission of the publisher, Trieste Publishing Pty Ltd, PO Box 1576 Collingwood, Victoria 3066 Australia.

All rights reserved.

Edited by Trieste Publishing Pty Ltd.
Cover @ 2017

This book is sold subject to the condition that it shall not, by way of trade or otherwise, be lent, re-sold, hired out, or otherwise circulated without the publisher's prior consent in any form or binding or cover other than that in which it is published and without a similar condition including this condition being imposed on the subsequent purchaser.

www.triestepublishing.com

KATHARINE FULLERTON GEROULD

A CHANGE OF
AIR; PP. 1-206

A CHANGE OF AIR

"I have called you here, my dear friends, to say that I have come to a definite decision as to the disposal of my fortune."

[Page 8.]

A CHANGE OF AIR

BY

KATHARINE FULLERTON GEBOULD

ILLUSTRATED BY H. J. MOWAT

NEW YORK
CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS

1917

ILLUSTRATIONS

"I have called you here, my dear friends, to say that I have come to a definite decision as to the disposal of my fortune" Frontispiece

FACING PAGE

"I can't stand the weather. So I am taking your advice. I'm leaving to-night" 96

In a few words, nervous but clear, he put the situation before them 140

Leaven . . . could see from his windows life returning to the world. But within the grayness deepened 204

345738

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and activities. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for ensuring transparency and accountability in financial operations.

2. The second part of the document outlines the various methods and tools used to collect and analyze data. It highlights the need for robust data management systems that can handle large volumes of information efficiently and securely.

3. The third part of the document focuses on the role of technology in modern data analysis. It explores how advanced software solutions and artificial intelligence can enhance the accuracy and speed of data processing, leading to more informed decision-making.

4. The fourth part of the document addresses the challenges associated with data privacy and security. It discusses the importance of implementing strong security protocols and compliance measures to protect sensitive information from unauthorized access and breaches.

5. The fifth part of the document discusses the ethical implications of data collection and analysis. It emphasizes the need for organizations to be transparent about their data practices and to respect the privacy and rights of individuals whose data is being processed.

6. The sixth part of the document provides a summary of the key findings and recommendations. It stresses the importance of continuous monitoring and evaluation of data management processes to ensure they remain effective and aligned with organizational goals.

7. The seventh part of the document concludes with a call to action, urging all stakeholders to work together to promote a culture of data-driven decision-making and responsible data management.

A CHANGE OF AIR

I

THE stuffy drawing-rooms were full of people. Some of the group realized the stuffiness, and would have liked more air; some of them were too much overawed to mind an atmosphere that knew how to live with ancestral mahogany. There were those who averted their gaze from the black-walnut "what-not"; there were those who ached with desire of its beauty. There were young eyes that could have appraised to a penny the big royal Bokhara rug in the front room, and watery eyes behind glasses that knew just how much work had gone into the complicated rag carpet before the fire in the room beyond. There was Bessie John, dressed in well-cut, much-worn tweed, prettily intent on ivory chessmen from the Summer Palace; and old Miss Bean, whose gloveless hands showed the stabs of a thousand relentless needles. Little Julie Fort dangled a German-silver vanity case from her bare left hand and hid her paint-smudged right in a cheap fitch muff. Next her sat Walter Leaven, gaunt, correct, threadbare, with time-stiffened figure and time-eroded face. Young Jim Huntingdon sprawled uncomfortably on the gilt Louis Seize chair to which fate had unkindly led him. Bleached hair and tanned face recorded the onslaught of tropic suns and of winds that acknowledged no human responsibilities. Now and then he threw up his head and snuffed the air uncomfortably, like an animal—panting a little as he sprawled. And others—and yet others—in every variety of attitude, filling the

A CHANGE OF AIR