To my Sister

ISABELLA FRANCES WESTON

* * * *

As I sit in my rose-garden by the old sun-dial, and listen to the cooing of the doves in the verandah and the vestful fall of the weir at the foot of the sandy lane, I bid the sunshine and the birds and the moving shadows bear a message to you in your beautiful garden, for I know that you will lovingly welcome the thoughts that have been nurtured in the Garden of Peace.

" My garden invites into it all the birds of the country, by offering them the conveniency of springs and shades, solitude and shelter; I do not suffer any one to destroy their nests in the Spring. By this means I have always the music of the season in its perfection."
