To "Tante Anna".....

This little book is an attempt to tell—briefly and informally—my impressions of some of the places I visited, and a few of my experiences. It is written for my friends, many of whom have urged me to give them more than a passing account of what I saw and did. My trip was in no way out of the ordinary—except in a few minor instances—and I make pretensions neither to great knowledge of the countries I visited, nor to any information that cannot be found more accurately and more fully given in other travel books. It is, in other words, just a personal account of the pleasures I experienced, and which I want you to enjoy with me.

With love from Howard.
