The author wishes to express his grateful obligation to Professor K. Asakawa of Yale University, to Professor Payson J. Treat of Leland Stanford Jr. University, to the Reverend Sidney L. Gulick, D. D., and to Professor Roger P. McCutcheon of Denison University. Each of these read the manuscript and made kindly and helpful suggestions. To their friendly criticism is due much of whatever value this book may have.

The author also desires to record his gratitude to the Japan Society for its generous courtesy in suggesting that the book be brought out under its auspices. The author wishes to add, entirely at his own instance, that the Society is in no respects to be held responsible for any views expressed in the book. The manuscript was prepared without the knowledge of the Society and until completed had not come under the eyes of the latter's officers. No changes were asked for by the Society—the author assumes full responsibility for all facts stated and opinions expressed.
