

SYMBOLISM OF THE DIVINE COMEDY

Published @ 2017 Trieste Publishing Pty Ltd

ISBN 9780649047390

Symbolism of the Divine Comedy by Jefferson B. Fletcher

Except for use in any review, the reproduction or utilisation of this work in whole or in part in any form by any electronic, mechanical or other means, now known or hereafter invented, including xerography, photocopying and recording, or in any information storage or retrieval system, is forbidden without the permission of the publisher, Trieste Publishing Pty Ltd, PO Box 1576 Collingwood, Victoria 3066 Australia.

All rights reserved.

Edited by Trieste Publishing Pty Ltd.
Cover @ 2017

This book is sold subject to the condition that it shall not, by way of trade or otherwise, be lent, re-sold, hired out, or otherwise circulated without the publisher's prior consent in any form or binding or cover other than that in which it is published and without a similar condition including this condition being imposed on the subsequent purchaser.

www.triestepublishing.com

JEFFERSON B. FLETCHER

SYMBOLISM OF
THE DIVINE COMEDY

SYMBOLISM OF
THE DIVINE COMEDY

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY PRESS
SALES AGENTS

NEW YORK
LEMCKE & BUECHNER
30-32 EAST 20TH STREET

LONDON
HUMPHREY MILFORD
AMEN CORNER, E. C.

SHANGHAI
EDWARD EVANS & SONS, LTD.
30 NORTH SZECHUEN ROAD

SYMBOLISM OF THE DIVINE COMEDY

BY

JEFFERSON B. FLETCHER

Professor of Comparative Literature
Columbia University

Published by Columbia University in Commemoration of the Six Hundredth Anniversary of Dante's Death

New York

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY PRESS

1921

All rights reserved

COPYRIGHT, 1921

By COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY PRESS

Printed from type. Published November, 1921

F.54
-121
M.A.M.

CONTENTS

	PAGE
Ariadne's Crown	I
The "Three Blessed Ladies" of the Divine Comedy	114
The Comedy of Dante	210

INTRODUCTION

THIS scholarly and significant study of the symbolism of Dante's Divine Comedy is appropriately published at a time when the whole world is celebrating the greatness of the poet as it marks the 600th anniversary of his death. Of the millions of human voices a few score are heard for a generation, perhaps as many as a dozen for a century, and but very, very few for all time. To strike the chord of human insight and human feeling that will vibrate unceasingly while time flies is a mark of genius so rare that it is the highest form of human achievement. The poet of mankind must speak a particular language, but he may speak it in a way that will confound the Tower of Babel and make the whole world understand. This has been done by Homer in Greek, by Dante in Italian, by Shakespeare in English, and by Goethe in German. Each of the four was in and for his time not only poet but philosopher; and it is the philosophy which has made the poetry live and which has given it a universal appeal.