PUBLISHER'S NOTICE.

TO THE SECOND EDITION.

The rapid sale of the first edition of this work, made it necessary to put to press a second, very soon after its publication. It has been very extensively reviewed, both in this country and in Europe; and the publishers feel justified in saying, that few religious works, that have appeared of late years, have produced more sensible effect on the religious community, or have received more universal encomiums, than "MAMMON!" Certainly no work could be better devised, or more faithfully executed, to counteract the prevailing sin of the times.

As an evidence of the popularity of the work in England, it is sufficient to give the testimony of a highly respectable clergyman, of London, who states in a communication lately received, "We have exhausted the tenth edition. Ten thousand copies have been sold —this is a sale which no writer has commanded since Scott—certainly no religious author." The desirableness of having a cheaper edition has been suggested by some who have interested themselves in the gratuitous distribution of the work. The publishers are therefore happy to comply with the suggestion, by putting it in a somewhat different shape.

Boston, Feb. 1837.

NOTICE TO THE THIRD EDITION.

The sale of FOUR THOUSAND copies of this popular work, within one year from its first appearance in this country, together with the fact that it has reached its "TWENTIETH THOU-SAND" in England, is conclusive evidence of its peculiar adaptedness to the times, as well as its own intrinsic merits ;—the present demand for it is greater than ever before, and it is hoped that it may be read, circulated, and its beneficial effects felt in every part of our country.
