TO MY COUNTRY!

IN freta dum fluvii current, dum montibus umbræ
Lustrabunt convexa, polus dum sidera pascet,
Semper honos, nomenque tuum, laudesque manebunt,
Quæ me cunque vocant terræ.

Æneid, lib. I.

P R E F A C E.

IN preparing the following pages for publication, the author has been animated by the sincere desire and hope of contributing to lessen the ill-feeling which exists in Great Britain against the United States. He believes that this will be best accomplished by exhibiting important facts concerning the causes of, and the issues involved in, the American Civil War, and concerning the nature and effects of Slavery at the South, drawn chiefly from Southern authorities and from official documents. He asks for a candid reading of his Pamphlet.

NICE, May 1, 1864.
