To

MR. RAPHAEL WEILL

Chevalier de la Legion d'Honneur

And to

MR. ALB. VAN DER NAILLEN, SR.

Author, Chevalier de l'Ordre de Leopold

Gentlemen:

I deem it an honor to dedicate my play to you;
kindly accept this as a token of appreciation and respect.

* * * *

When, after his daily journey through heaven, at the close of a summer day, the radiant wanderer in a luminous apotheosis sets in the glittering west, the ravished human soul contemplates this eternal masterpiece of the Creator with a feeling of admiration blended with sorrow and regret . . .
It is the end of a beautiful day.

So do we admire with the same sentiment the career
of the upright man and the philanthropist.
