DEBATABLE GROUND

"AN exceedingly interesting novel. Miss Stern is clever, with a sound grasp of Wells' dazzling technique. . . . A mighty sharp-eyed and sharp-tongued novel."

—Francis Hackett in The New Republic.

"The story fits England and America. . . . Debatable Ground presents something for all of us to think about, and it likewise has a story interesting enough for its own sake."

—The Chicago Daily News.

"An exceedingly clever book which is at the same time an almost terribly real one. The dialogue alone in it is worth the price of admission. Each character has a rich, full life at the hands of the author. It's all glittering with brilliance, but somehow, fundamentally, it's all real."

—Fanny Butcher in The Chicago Tribune.
