INTRODUCTION

The Moody Bible Institute has long wanted a Hymn Book such as "The Voice of Thanksgiving." It is a generous collection of hymns hallowed by association with the past, and yet it contains many new ones of the kind that moisten the eye, revive the spiritual life of God's children, and bring conviction and salvation to the lost and erring. The title is suggested by the beautiful 26th Psalm, where David expresses his attachment to God's house and the worship of His holy name, saying in the translation of Bishop Horsley,— "I wash my hands in innocency, and ever am about Thy altar, O! Jehovah, to listen to the voice of thanksgiving, and to recite all Thy wondrous deeds."

A book to meet the needs of the hundreds of students from all parts of the world who pass through this Institute each year, and where church and gospel music has always been an outstanding feature of its curriculum, ought to possess merits commending it to a wide circle. We believe it will grow speedily in favor wherever it is known and carry a blessing wherever it goes.

1. In all the gos-pel of God's grace, Is there a word more sweet
 2. Why should we ev-er har-bor doubt, Or shrink in trem-bling fear,

Than that, with glad and ho-ly joy, In cho-rus we re-beat?
 Why rath-er not in con-fi-dence The Throne of Grace draw near?
 When heav'n-ly pow'r is ours, to make And keep us pure with-in?
 Let him pro-claim wher-e'er he goes This mes-sage of free grace.

Son, That who-so-ev-er be-liev-eth in Him should not per-ish, should not

 Should have ev-er-last-ing life.
