The Imperial Parliament Series.

EDITED BY SYDNEY BUXTON, M.P.

THE intention of this Series is to place within reach of the general public, at a very cheap rate, short volumes dealing with those topics of the day which lie within the range of practical politics.

Notwithstanding the constantly increasing demand for political literature, to enable electors and others to follow the argument in connection with particular reforms, there are at present no easily obtainable and permanent text-books to which they can refer, the advocates of these reforms confining themselves, as a rule to pamphlets, magazine articles, and speeches, or else discussing their subject in a form beyond the reach of the masses.

It is hoped that these little volumes, being written in a judicial spirit—and, though advocating each its own proposal, as far as may be, free from party bias or polemical controversy—will be recognized as authoritative, and, being published in a permanent form, may be less evanescent than ordinary political writings, and be thus of real value. The Series, though "Political," will not be "Party."

The volumes will be written by politicians who are recognised as authorities on the subjects of which they treat. Each volume will be complete in itself, and the writers alone will be responsible for the opinions they may express.

The Series comes into competition with no existing publication. The valuable "English Citizen" Series details the rights and responsibilities of citizens as they exist at present; it speaks of things as they are—this Series will deal with them as reformers think they should be.

The following Volumes are now in course of issue :—
