INTRODUCTORY

A complete genealogy of the family of Ezra Davison, his children, grand children, great grand children, great great grand children, and great great great grand children. Also his father and all his brothers and sisters. And a complete line of ancestors back to 1611.

Also notes from the Biography of William Davison, Secretary of State to Queen Elizabeth, with "reasons why," etc. Also records from the Secretary of War, of Ezra, and his father, Asa, when, where, and in what Company and Regiment they served in the Revolutionary War, and when they were discharged, making us all sons and daughters of the Revolution. This alone is worth more than the cost of the book. The author of this book personally knew Ezra and all of his children, except Sarah and Reuben, who died before he was born and all the grand children except probably three. The rest was obtained through correspondence and reliable sources, making record of eleven generations. Hoping this work will please and interest the "Davison Family."

A. A. DAVISON, Manito, Ill.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and activities. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for ensuring transparency and accountability in financial reporting.

2. The second part of the document outlines the various methods and techniques used to collect and analyze data. It highlights the need for consistent and reliable data collection processes to ensure the validity of the results.

3. The third part of the document describes the different types of data that are collected and analyzed. It includes information on both quantitative and qualitative data, as well as the various sources and methods used to obtain this information.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the various statistical methods and techniques used to analyze the data. It covers topics such as descriptive statistics, inferential statistics, and regression analysis, among others.

5. The fifth part of the document discusses the various ways in which the results of the analysis can be presented and communicated. It includes information on the use of tables, graphs, and other visual aids to make the data more understandable and accessible to the intended audience.

6. The sixth part of the document discusses the various ethical considerations that must be taken into account when conducting research. It emphasizes the importance of maintaining the integrity and confidentiality of the data, as well as the need to obtain informed consent from all participants.

7. The seventh part of the document discusses the various ways in which the results of the research can be used to inform decision-making and policy-making. It highlights the importance of providing clear and concise summaries of the findings, as well as the need to consider the broader implications of the research.

8. The eighth part of the document discusses the various ways in which the research can be disseminated and shared with the wider community. It includes information on the use of conferences, journals, and other platforms to share the results of the research.

9. The ninth part of the document discusses the various ways in which the research can be used to inform future research and practice. It emphasizes the importance of identifying areas for further research and the need to build on the existing knowledge base.

10. The tenth part of the document discusses the various ways in which the research can be used to inform policy-making and practice. It highlights the importance of providing clear and concise summaries of the findings, as well as the need to consider the broader implications of the research.

DAVISON FAMILY

NICHOLAS DAVISON.

1st Generation. NICHOLAS DAVISON was born in London, or Lynn, England, 1611. Married Joanna Hodges. He was at Charleston, Mass., 1639, as agent for Matthew Cradock, a merchant of London, the first nominal governor of Massachusetts, but who never came to America. He went to Barbadoes and thence to England in 1655, returning to America in 1656, in the Spedwell, and died at Charleston in 1664, aged 53 years. His will was proved July 11th, 1664, in which his wife and two children were named, also his brother John. He left an estate inventoried at £1869, 11s, 11d, including lands in Boston, Charleston, Pennequid, and 21,000 acres near Windsor on both sides of the Connecticut river.

NICHOLAS DAVISON'S CHILDREN.

II. DANIEL DAVISON was born April 8th, 1639. Married Margaret Low, April 8th, 1657, and settled at Ipswick, Mass. No record of his death as the early records of Ipswick were lost.

II. Sarah Davison. Married to Joseph Lynch.

II. Daniel Davison, son of Nicholas, had seven children.

III. John, Margaret, Sarah, Daniel, William, Peter, and Thomas.

III. Thomas Davison, son of Daniel. Married Hannah Tracy of Norwich, Conn., Nov. 18th, 1695, at Norwich, Conn. They settled at Preston, Conn., where he owned extensive tracts of land. He held nearly every office in the gift of his townsmen. He was received into full communion in the first Presbyterian Church March 5th, 1699. Died Dec. 2d, 1724. Had seven children.

IV. Jonathan, Margaret, Thomas 2d, Christopher, John, Hannah, and Samuel.

IV. Thomas Davison 2d, son of Thomas, son of Daniel, son of Nicholas, was born 1702. Married Lydia Herrick, daughter of Stephen Herrick of Beverly, Mass., Aug. 31st, 1726. Settled at Preston, Conn. Died 1750. Had ten children.

V. Andrew, Zephaniah, Christopher (died in infancy), Christopher, Daniel, Asa, Lydia, Elizabeth, and two children who died in infancy.

Before recording the 10th generation I will give the Revolutionary War records of Asa Davison, also of his son Ezra. It will particularly interest our young people. Whoever is recorded in this book has sufficient evidence to admit them into the orders of Sons and Daughters of the Revolution, also of the Colonial Dames. The records they sent me from the Secretary of War was evidently for the last years of the war. Will note they are enlisted for short campaigns of a few months or a year. Were discharged and enlisted again. We find in other accounts that Asa Davison was at the Battle of Lexington. Was also with Gen. Benedict Arnold on his famous campaign to Canada. Also we find him at the Battle of Monmouth. We also find that Ezra enlisted the day he was seventeen years old and served the last year of the war. Family tradition says he enlisted when he was sixteen, but the first year is not given in this record from the Pension Office. I will give copy of those records exactly as they were sent to me.

RECORD AND PENSION OFFICE, WAR DEPARTMENT.

Respectfully returned to A. A. Davison, Manito, Ill.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 28, 1896.

The records of this office show that Asa Davison served as a private in Captain Nathaniel Webb's Company, 4th Battalion. Connecticut forces commanded by Col. John Durkee, Revolutionary War. He enlisted March 1st, 1778, to serve 5 months, and was discharged Jan. 1st, 1779.

The records also show that Asa Davison served as a private in the 1st Company, Fifth Connecticut Regiment, commanded by Lieut. Col. Sherman, Revolutionary War. His name first appears on the roll for March, 1782, and he was discharged June 22d, 1782.

The records further show that Asa Davison served as a private in Capt. Nehemiah Rise's company, 8th Connecticut Regiment, Revolutionary War. He enlisted Aug. 16th, 1779, to serve six months, and was discharged Jan. 15th, 1780.
