THE OCEAN OF DREAMS.

To the country of Fancy, when night shades descend,

Toward the West where its outlines are traced,

Far away from the cares that know never an end,

Come, thou weary world-traveller, haste!

Lo, the city of Romance, that country's delight,

Is enthroned the blue ocean beside,

And the river of Poesy flows every night
To commingle its sweets with the tide.

From the harbor of Sleep when the sunset draws nigh,

When the dying light heavenward streams,
We will float, to the strains of a soft lullaby,
O'er the beautiful ocean of Dreams.
