NOTE

This volume contains tables of contents and indexes of the four volumes of the Endowment's series of translated proceedings of the Hague Conferences of 1899 and 1907. The tables of contents, being translations of the tables in the original French, have already appeared in the several volumes of the translated proceedings; but it has been thought advisable also to bring them together here as they are quite detailed and will facilitate research when used with the indexes. The indexes have been prepared in the Division of International Law.

Preceding these tables and indexes will be found the programs of the two Conferences and a summary table of contents of this volume showing the assignments of the different subjects of the programs to the committees of the Conferences.
