DEDICATION
A TRIBUTE TO MOTHER.

(Copy of personal letter written by Buffalo Bill to the author.)

VISALIA, CALIFORNIA, October 13, 1910.

MY DEAR FRANK:—

Yes—I had the great pleasure of meeting your dear little mother, and when I gazed on her sweet face and listened to her gentle voice she reminded me very much of my own angel mother who was little and sweet like your mother.

And, Frank, I grew up among some of the roughest men and some of the most desperate characters that ever infested the border of civilization and had it not been for the teachings and prayers of my mother I, too, might have died with my boots on. I think to our mothers we owe most. God bless our mothers.

Your true friend,

W. F. CODY.
