O wonderful, O passing thought,
The love that God hath had for thee !
Spending on thee no less a sum
Than the undivided Trinity !

CHAPTER I.

SOME of the servants of the Son of Man are searching for the treasure, that is hid in the field where they labour; where the rich, great, worthy, and respectable people flourish; the place in which others are diving into "the troubled sea, whose waters cast up mire and dirt," to find the "goodly pearls" for Him, that He desires to buy, at the cost of "all that He has."

"They that do business in great waters, see the works of the Lord, and His wonders in the deep," in a manner that none others do. Therefore, should "they praise Him for His wonderful works to the children of men"!

There is an arm of the "troubled sea" in London, which is replenished, and made very glorious
