PREFACE

DEAR CLASSMATES:

The death of George Dickerman saddened our last meeting, and put upon his successor a task for which he has little aptitude or time. These drawbacks have been enhanced by the fact that it has been hard in not a few cases to secure from members of the Class prompt replies to the biographical questions, and harder still to obtain the photographs needed to illustrate the book. Many of the Class seem to have been too modest to have themselves photographed in recent years. Fortunately the Secretary possesses an almost complete set of the Class photographs, so that each member's face, either past or present, will look out from the pages of the record and greet each living member of the Class even if he never attends a Class meeting. It will be noticed that the book aims to give a complete account of the life of every member since graduation, and is, therefore, not merely a supplement to previous issues.

The Secretary desires to express his thanks to all who have assisted him by sending contributions or photographs, and especially to his fellow members of the committee, George Gunn and Harry Hatch, and to Dave Kennedy, who very kindly made the final revision of the copy for the press. He acknowledges gratefully the valuable aid given by the Class Secretaries Bureau, without which the gathering of the material would have involved greater delay and less accuracy. He is also indebted to the Bureau for the permission to use without charge a number of plates of old college buildings prepared for the use of other classes.

HENRY W. FARNAM.
