NOTE

This volume contains the substance of a course of lectures delivered in Baltimore in February and March, 1915, under the auspices of THE SOCIAL SERVICE CORPORATION. The course is the first of a series planned for successive years on the general theme of SOCIAL CONSTRUCTION.

Except when obviously inappropriate, the direct form of address has been retained, as well as references to local conditions by way of illustration.

My colleague, Miss Brandt, has shared in the preparation of the lectures and of the volume for publication.
